

Margaret Cregor Bell

Margaret Bell has had a 37-year career in business development (sales), client management and marketing, primarily in financial services. Margaret was Managing Director at Cincinnati based Fort Washington Investment Advisors which is a subsidiary of Western & Southern Financial and a $50B asset management firm. She retired from Fort Washington in October of 2017. Among other volunteer endeavors, Margaret served as President of the Board of Governors in 2018 for the University Club of Cincinnati.

Prior positions include serving as Head of Marketing and Client Service for Todd Investment Advisors (Louisville), Trust Marketing Officer for PNC (Louisville), Alumni Relations Director for Kentucky Country Day, Senior Sales Representative at Unisys (formerly Sperry Corporation in Houston, TX) and Marketing Manager/Sales Representative for Exxon Office Systems (Houston, TX).

Margaret is married to James Bell who is originally from Alabama. He is a Strategic Healthcare Account Executive at Infor. They have two children and a dog named Dixie. Anne Stuart works for Teach for America in Memphis and plans to go to Psychology graduate school in 2020. Sarah is a senior at Indiana University Kelley School of Business and has plans to work for 3M next summer as a Marketing/Strategy Analyst. Margaret received her BA in Psychology from Hollins College in VA.

Margaret likes travel, sports and spending time with her family and is happy to be back in Louisville again. She looks forward to getting involved with several organizations in town.